Mr. James D. McKay, of Scappoose, has been appointed deputy game warden, his field being from Portland to Coast. McKay is a competent man and will doubtless enforce the law in an impartial manner.

ADDS TAILORING—Tailored and shirt suits. All work guaranteed.

V. HEGERLE, Houlton, Or.

Edward Anderson, of Fishhawk, was a visitor to the county seat on Tuesday on legal business.

Mr. Edwin Seffert, of Deer Island, was here last Tuesday.

Contractor Erickson left for Portland last Monday, and while away will figure on construction of a corner house at Bak-City. He will return next Monday, hoping by that time the weather will permit work to be pushed upon the construction of the new plaza.

SHINGLES FOR SALE—I carry a stock of shingles and offer them for sale at $1.50 to $2.50 per thousand.

H. MORGUS, St. Helens.

County fruit inspector Holladay has served notice from the state officer to enforce the law in this county. Holladay has done considerable good this season, but there is much more to be done and the time is short, so he expects more energetically, and to serve on those who have diseased and old trees and that unless they comply with the law the matter will be turned over to the district attorney.

FREE PAMPHLETS—The Houlton-St. Helens Commercial Club, by its secretary, C. Gray, will furnish free pamphlets relating the resources of Columbia County, to all who desire to send them to the Fast who may contemplate going to Oregon. Now is the time to get these pamphlets where they will do most good. They will just fit a business envelope.

For Sale—Sunlight and American seed potatoes, earliest and best varieties known, also fine Salinas Burros, also winter and spring oats. For particulars write or see C. J. Larsen, Warren, Or.

School warrants cashed at par. Columbia County Bank.

VISIT OF BISHOP SCADDING—The Right Reverend Charles Scadding, D. D., Episcopal Bishop of the diocese of Oregon, will visit Christ Church, St. Helens, on the evening of April 8th, and will administer the apostolic rite of the "Laying on of Hands." The Bishop will also preach. The following morning, Thursday, April 9th, he will celebrate the Lord's Supper at 9:30. Bishop Scadding is one of the great churchmen of the United States. The opportunity to hear and become acquainted with him should be embraced by as many as can find room within the church. All are invited.

FOR SALE CHEAP—One 215 egg capacity Petaluma Incubator and two brooders, all in first class condition. MRS. S. H. FREEMAN, Deer Island, Or.

Syrup of White Pine and Tar, the old reliable cough remedy. For sale by A. J. Deming, druggist.

All that is necessary is to add a little heat to my buckwheat flour, and lo! you have hot cakes or to my eight kinds of cereals and have mush. There is no higher grade goods made than what I have in this line. If you get anything of me that is not all right, I want you to report it to me, no to neighbors. I will refund your money, he went. The best goods will sometimes become damaged.

M. C. GRAY.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Bell, of Rainier, were visitors to the county seat last Tuesday. It was their first visit and they were delighted with the town, especially with Columbia County's beautiful courthouse.

If the big packers cannot find room for their plants in Portland, why do not they come farther down the river. St. Helens or Columbia City would be equally good points for stock yards and packing houses.

The steam schooner Yosemite is loading ties at the Schupbach place, taking on 500,000 feet of ties.

James Gaittens, of Deer Island, was a business visitor to St. Helens last Wednesday.

DENTIST—Dr. Rambo will be in Houlton Friday and Saturday of each week.
